Court finds there is no material dispute as to facts currounding the transaction between Lee Oldsmobile and Chad Lee Baker on March 31, 1990. Court finds that as matter of law Chad Baker did not become the owner of 1988 Ford Ranger as a result pf that transaction and specifically was not the owner of the vehicle at the time of the accident on April 1, 1990. Court finds that there is no dispute as to material fact with respect to fact that Chad Baker was a "family member" within the meaning of the policy issued to his father, Leo Baker, by the Plaintiff. Since Chad Baker was family member he was an insured under the policy part-A, Parg. #B-1.
Court costs to be divided equally between the Plaintiff, the Bakers, and Lee Olds.
Court directs the entry of final judgment.

defendant, Heverin, to operate her motor vehicle at the time of the collision referred to in both cases. Secondly, in accordance with the policy of Darlene Faye Heverin with State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, that being the one referred to in the complaint in Civil 92-03463, which was in effect at time of accident, State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company is liable for payment of the judgments rendered in Civil 90-02582.
